Ms. Kloppenburg has led an 'artful' life. A partner in a well-respected law firm that she started with her husband in Saskatoon, her formidable collection of Saskatchewan and Canadian art is perhaps matched only by her substantial generosity and desire to support and advance art and culture in Canada. She has not only participated in numerous organizations focused on enhancing health care and social services, but has worked tirelessly with various organizations to ensure the people of Saskatchewan have access to study and enjoy art. In 2000, she and her husband donated a 27-piece collection comprised of well-known Canadian artists to the College of Agriculture and Bioresources.
